Please join us for the 40th anniversary season at Centrum!

Since 1973, Centrum has served as a destination for artists and creative thinkers, the world over. Students of all ages and audiences seeking extraordinary cultural enrichment have always found a home at Centrum.

We invite you to experience the matchless environment and world-class artistry available only here in Port Townsend.

We are again privileged to share our stages with some of the leading voices in the arts. Centrum's artistic directors, John Clayton (Jazz), Erin Belieu (Writing), Daryl Davis (Blues), Suzy Thompson (Fiddle Tunes), and Lucinda Carver (Chamber Music) are vital to our mission. Our Directors curate workshops and residencies that allow hundreds of aspiring amateur and pre-professional artists from throughout North America to live, work and play with world-class teachers and faculty members each summer at Fort Worden, transforming lives and developing the stars of tomorrow.

Centrum's programs are gratefully presented in partnership with the Washington State Arts Commission, the Washington State Parks Commission and the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. We thank the many donors and generous sponsors who support Centrum and its distinctive role in our community, and we hope you will too!

We look forward to seeing you this summer! Thank you for your continued support of Centrum.

Cindy McBride, President
Board of Directors

Robert A. Birman
Executive Director

At Centrum, creativity and learning are one. From exploring the roots of the blues or jazz, to the traditions of American fiddle music or our award-winning writers' workshops - for forty years Centrum's summer festivals have transformed the majestic, inspiring setting of Fort Worden State Park into a unique arts destination, the envy of regions twice our size.

Join us and discover a full set of mainstage performances, nightclub events, vibrant readings, lectures, dances, and more in honor of Centrum's 40th anniversary in 2013!

Creative Experiences.
Changing Lives.

Home to writers, musicians, artists, and artisans, Port Townsend is just two hours northwest of Seattle and features a broad array of unique shops, art galleries, coffee shops, bookstores, and waterfront restaurants, with some of the best-preserved Victorian architecture in the country. The combined energy of the arts, marine trades, and history make Port Townsend an alluring getaway.

Centrum's mainstage performances take place at McCurdy Pavilion, a 1,200 seat World War I-era hangar that has been renovated into a concert hall - the only one of its kind in the world. More intimate performances and readings take place at the 280-seat Joseph F. Wheeler Theater. In addition, jazz and blues club dates take place in myriad restaurants and nightclubs of downtown Port Townsend.

Experience Centrum and its world-renowned artists this summer!

VOICE WORKS

June 24-30

Enjoy some of the country's finest vocal talents in dances and a mainstage performance, including the sensational gospel singers the Birmingham Sunlights, as well as Linda and David Lay, Yvette Landry, Jason and Pharis Romero, Caleb Klauder and others!

Pharis and Jason Romero's triumphant first album, A Passing Glimpse, won the Americana Album of the Year at the 2012 Independent Music Awards, and was included on many Best of 2011 lists.

Workshop space is still available! Spend a week in a full-immersion singing workshop for singers of all skill levels and in many genres. Learn more at centrum.org/voiceworks/

2013 PERFORMERS

The Birmingham Sunlights are joyous keepers of the art of unaccompanied four-part gospel harmony singing.

Caleb Klauder (right) makes his mark on the scene with a notable perspective on country music in the new century.

Reeb Willms is a true and vulnerable vocalist, with a sweet knack for harmonizing.

Linda Lay currently lends her powerful voice and incredibly timed bass playing to the popular quartet Springfield Exit. Her husband, David Lay plays rhythm guitar in the band.

Deemed the "Queen of Cajun Bass," Yvette Landry's 2010 solo release, 'Should Have Known' is packed with homemade honky-tonk kickers and ballads.

Bellingham, Washington vocalist and dobro player Laurel Bliss has a straightforward yet tender approach to singing that suggests an earlier era.

When not teaching or building banjos, North Carolina's Riley Baugus can be found out on the road performing.

Kristin Andreassen's single "Crayola Doesn't Make a Color for Your Eyes" won the John Lennon Song Contest Grand Prize for Children's music.

The Festival of American

FIDDLE TUNES

June 30-July 7

Since its inception in 1977, the Festival of American Fiddle Tunes has been one of the largest celebrations of traditional music west of the Mississippi.

This year, the Festival continues under the helm of Artistic Director Suzy Thompson as hundreds of players come to Fort Worden State Park for a full week of workshop classes, band labs, tutorials, dances, concerts, open jams, parties, and informal and spontaneous gatherings.

These workshops lead into mainstage shows where thousands of audience members pack McCurdy Pavilion, enjoying the tapestry of North American fiddle styles.

Readings & Lectures from the Port Townsend

WRITERS'

July 7-21

CONFERENCE

Immerse yourself in the current, fresh writing from some of the nation's finest writers, including Ann Hood, Terrance Hayes, Patricia Henley, Dan Chaon, Dorianne Laux, Sam Ligon, Artistic Director Erin Belieu, and many others.

READERS AND LECTURERS

An accomplished poet and fiction writer as well as an academic, Cate Marvin uses her work to explore what it means to be an "American poet."

Known for his difficult, meticulous poems, Arthur Sze's many honors include a Lannan Literary Ward, an American Book Award, and the Lila Wallace-Reader's Digest Writer's Award.

Pushcart Prize winner, Dorianne Laux is the author of several collections of poetry and has received fellowships from the Guggenheim Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Erin Belieu (pictured left), Centrum's Artistic Director for the Port Townsend Writers' Conference, is the author of three collections of poetry. Her first book, "Infanta," was a winner of the National Poetry Series.

Two-time recipient of the DC Commission of the Arts Fellowship for Poetry, Gary Copeland Lilley's publications include four books of poetry.

Terrance Hayes' book "Lighthead" (2010) won the National Book Award in 2010. His other honors include a National Poetry Series award, a Pushcart Prize, and two Best American Poetry selections.

Dan Chaon wrote the national best-seller "Await Your Reply." His fiction has appeared in Best American Short Stories, The Pushcart Prize Anthologies, and The O. Henry Prize Stories.

Patricia Henley's first book of stories, "Friday Night at Silver Star", was the winner of the Montana First Book Award. Her first novel, "Hummingbird House", was a finalist for the National Book Award.

Workshop space is still available! Spend a week—or two—learning in a full-immersion community experience. Designed for beginning, emerging, and post-MFA writers, the Port Townsend Writers' Conference celebrates its 40th anniversary in 2013.

Conference celebrates its 40th anniversary in 2013.

Sam Ligon's stories have appeared in such journals as Alaska Quarterly Review, StoryQuarterly, and New England Review.

Skip Horack is a former Jones Lecturer at Stanford, where he was also a Wallace Stegner Fellow. His novel "The Eden Hunter" was a New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice.

Askold Melnyczuk's latest novel, "The House of Widows," was an Editor's Choice selection of the American Library Association's Booklist.

From Veracruz, Mexico, María de Lourdes Victoria is an award-winning author whose work has been published internationally in English and Spanish.

Ann Hood's novels include "Waiting to Vanish," "Three-Legged Horse," "Something Blue," "Places to Stay the Night," "The Properties of Water," and "Ruby."

Bob Shacochis is an award-winning fiction writer, essayist, and journalist. His first collection of stories, "Easy in the Islands," won the National Book Award.

Joy Passanante has taught nearly 20 different courses for the English department at the University of Idaho. Her books include "Sinning in Italy", "My Mother's Lovers", and "The Art of Absence."

A former sketch comedienne and NPR scriptwriter, Jennine Capó Crucet's most recent story collection "How to Leave Hialeah" won the Iowa Short Fiction Award, among others.

All readings will be held at the Wheeler Theater, all lectures at the Schoolhouse.
